

1. GENERAL

1.2. TC Bohinj includes a camping area that accommodates up to 90 guests, a main house, and an auxiliary building with a total of 35 beds. The main house features a multipurpose dining room (which also serves as an activity, meeting, or conference room), a club/living room on the first floor, a classroom in the basement, an office, hallways, sanitary facilities, and bedrooms (4 rooms with 3 beds each, 2 rooms with shared beds in the main building, and 2 additional rooms in the auxiliary building).

The house is equipped to support modern adult education and the implementation of the scouting program. A list of available equipment is attached to these house rules. Equipment is provided based on prior requests for a usage fee. Consumable materials for programs must be provided by the group or, in the case of ZTS courses, coordinated with the responsible employee in the ZTS office. These house rules also apply to the Laški Rovt camping area.

1. Professional staff: ZTS Secretary General, office worker(s) (administrative service), TC Bohinj manager, cook, and auxiliary staff.
2. Volunteers: Shift leader, course (group) leaders, mentors (guides), scouts providing technical support for organizing courses (shifts), course participants, and guests.

1. Economical and careful use of shared property,
2. Respectful and friendly behaviour towards others and nature,
3. Promoting healthy living.

1.6. The following are prohibited:

- a. Smoking, consuming alcoholic beverages, or using drugs on the premises of TC Bohinj.
- b. Entering the kitchen and food storage areas, except for the cook, caretaker, ZTS office staff, or camping participant invited or assigned by one of the above.
- c. Digging trenches around tents or damaging the meadow used for camping.
- d. Cutting down trees or clearing undergrowth in and around TC Bohinj without the owner's permission and agreement with the caretaker.

- a. Introducing non-native forest plant species, except for the purpose of stabilizing eroded land or initial greening.
- b. Disturbing wildlife through shouting, making noise, throwing or launching objects, or any other disruptive behaviour.
- c. Releasing polluted water (waste) and other substances that alter the quality of water or soil.
- d. Storing forest products or leaving logging waste in watercourses and torrent channels.
- e. Exceeding the permitted noise levels: 45 Leq (dBA) during the day and 40 Leq (dBA) at night, except when carrying out regular activities within the national park.
- f. Burning waste or other materials outdoors, except for wood and other plant-based waste.
- g. Camping, parking, or leaving motor vehicles or trailers outside designated areas.
- h. Lighting fires and preparing embers outside designated or arranged areas.
- i. Using forest roads for public traffic unless specifically permitted and marked.

j. Causing noise between 10:00 PM and 6:00 AM.

2. PETS

2.1. Pets are allowed at TC Bohinj with prior arrangement with the TC Bohinj manager.

2.2. Pets are not permitted inside the house.

2.3. Pets may stay in a tent, but only in a cage provided by the owner. Pets are not allowed on bedding. Alternatively, owners can set up their own tent for their pet with prior agreement from the TC Bohinj manager.

2.4. Pets must be older than six months.

2.5. Owners must provide a pet passport with proof of all mandatory vaccinations. Dogs must be microchipped and protected against parasites.

2.6. Owners are responsible for ensuring their pets are clean and well-behaved. Pet waste must be collected in a bag and disposed of in a trash can.

2.7. Pets must be kept on a leash when outside the tent. If necessary, we reserve the right to require pets to wear a muzzle.

2.8. Pets must not cause noise or disturb other guests. Failure to comply may result in cancellation of the accommodation service.

2.9. Owners are responsible for any damage caused by their pets.

3.7. Firewood for campfires can be arranged (usually purchased) after consulting with the TC Bohinj manager.

3.8. Any program changes affecting meal preparation or requiring additional materials and equipment must be communicated to the TC Bohinj manager at least one day in advance, or one day earlier if the change will occur on a Sunday, a holiday, or immediately after.

4.1. The menu includes three meals a day: breakfast, lunch, and dinner, with tea or juice available throughout the day. Additional requests, treats (such as birthday gifts), and afternoon snacks must be ordered and paid for separately, at least one day in advance.

4.2. One day in advance, the shift leadership may propose menu changes to the TC Bohinj manager (or cook) within the same price range to better accommodate guests' tastes and needs. The TC Bohinj manager will consider these requests as feasible.

4.3. Meals are served buffet style. The staff at TC Bohinj will wash dirty dishes. Guests are responsible for preparing their dishes for washing by scraping food remnants into designated buckets and stacking the dishes accordingly. The shift leader must ensure compliance with these procedures as per the TC Bohinj manager's instructions. Cutlery and plates should not be removed from the dining area.

4.4. Breakfast includes bread, butter, jam, pâté, yoghurt, cereals, and tea (with milk, etc.). Lunch consists of a main course (either vegetable or meat dishes) and may include dessert (such as fruit or cake). Dinner is a simpler meal, with both vegetable and meat options.

4.5. The shift leadership should inform the staff of any special dietary needs at least 10 days before arrival, so the service can notify the TC Bohinj manager.

5.1. The shift leader is responsible for cleaning the premises and their surroundings, as well as overseeing the participants' hygiene. The shift leadership plans and assigns regular daily cleaning tasks.

5.2. The TC Bohinj manager regularly monitors and assists in maintaining the cleanliness of common areas.

6. SAFETY

6.2. Participants should be familiar with basic first aid. The shift leader must report any accidents or health issues to the TC Bohinj leader immediately. In case of emergency, the nearest hospital is located in Bohinjska Bistrica.

7. INSURANCE

7.2. ZTS is not responsible for any lost, damaged, or stolen personal items.

8. SANCTIONS

8.2. The consumption of alcohol by minors (those under 18 years of age) is prohibited in the building or camp area. It is also prohibited to bring alcohol into the areas for the purpose of enabling minors to consume it.

8.3. Violating house rules or fire safety regulations is considered a material breach of this contract, allowing TC Bohinj to terminate the contract immediately and without notice.

9. COMPLAINTS AND SUGGESTIONS

9.1. Complaints should generally be resolved amicably by the shift leader and TC Bohinj manager. If a dispute arises between them, either (or both) may submit a written complaint to the responsible staff member within five days after the end of the shift. The complaint must include a description of the issue, the date, and a legible signature. Any disputes requiring immediate resolution will be handled by the ZTS Secretary General or an authorized employee in the ZTS office.

9.2. Suggestions for improving living conditions and management may be submitted by email to tc.bohinj@taborniki.si.

10. FINAL PROVISIONS

10.1. These house rules are an integral part of the agreement between ZTS and the shift leadership. Compliance is mandatory.

10.2. Any changes to these rules must receive approval from the ZTS Secretary General.

10.3. Violations of these rules may result in expulsion from TC Bohinj without reimbursement of fees.

These house rules take effect on 1 August 2024.
